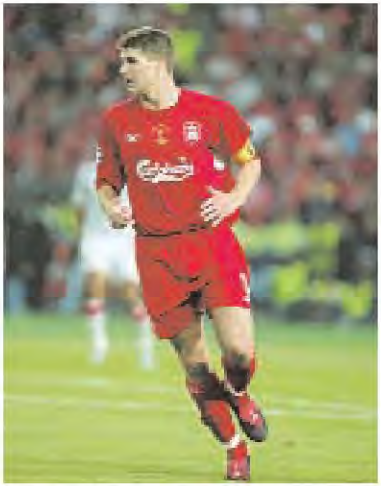
The newest Dr Pepper StarCenter is currently being built at Craig Ranch as well.



"There was an automatic attraction to the Hicks Sports Marketing Group for us and it's a perfect relationship," said David Craig, founder and master developer of Craig Ranch. "I'm thrilled and honored to partner with Tom Hicks and the Hicks Sports Marketing Group. He's a winner and we're winners, and I think if you want to be the best, you have to partner with the best. Certainly, there's no one better to do that than HSMG."

AMERICAN AIRLINES CENTER

Since opening in July 2001, the American Airlines Center has set a new standard for sports and entertainment and has become the premier venue of the South. It's grand complex with sweeping vistas and inviting passages comprise five concourses, 142 luxury suites, two 50 person "party" suites, and room for 18,532 hockey fans.

Designed by world-renowned architect David M. Schwarz and Dallas based HKS, Inc., the American Airlines Center is a combination of traditional architecture and hi-tech wizardry. Outside, the signature arches are warm and inviting, inside; the retractable seating brings the bowl in closer to the action, allowing fans a more intimate experience and exceptional sight lines.

Through July 2008, its seventh anniversary, American Airlines Center hosted more than 15 million guests at over 1100 sporting and entertainment events. Over 100 musical artists have performed including sold out performances from The Rolling Stones, Eagles, U2, Paul McCartney, The Police, Billy Joel, Elton John, Fleetwood Mac, Eric Clapton, George Strait, Bruce Springsteen and Usher, to name a few. It has also hosted family shows such as The Texas Stampede, Disney on Ice, Stars on Ice, Champions on Ice, Ringling Bros. And Barnum & Bailey, Freestyle Motocross, and Harlem Globetrotters.

World Wrestling Entertainment has become a frequent guest at the Center, producing Monday Night RAW, Smackdown and Saturday Night Main Event televised nationally on NBC. The American Airlines Center has been no stranger to major sporting events. In addition to the Dallas Stars, Dallas Mavericks and Dallas Desperados, The Center has hosted The 2002 & 2006 NCAA 1st and 2nd Round Men's Basketball Tournaments, The Phillips 66 2003, 2004, & 2006 Men's Big 12 Basketball Tournaments, The 2003 U.S. Figure Skating Championships and other events such as Boxing and Ultimate Fighting. The Center was a proud host of the 2007 NHL All-Star Game and the 2006 NBA Finals.

American Airlines Center was designed to keep hockey ice in perfect condition even when the Texas heat blazes outside. To maintain a constant temperature of 64-68 degrees, the building has a separate chiller system just for the slab, eight miles of one-inch pipe and 320 tons of refrigeration. In addition, a 3,600-ton air-conditioning system and a dehumidification system extract 500 gallons of moisture per hour during the season. The ice is put into place each September and takes 24 hours to build up to the 1-inch depth the players are accustomed to. The ice stays in the Center until the playoffs are complete and is covered up during the season with a special material called Ice Deck, a fiberglass product that keeps the ice cold and allows the air temperature above to rise without affecting the ice. Recently, the Zamboni was retrofitted with a Fast Ice system, the latest technology that allows the ice maintenance crew to cut the ice quickly in order to keep the ice smooth and fast.

This technology also helps with quicker conversion between basketball and hockey thanks to the most sophisticated retractable seating system ever designed for a sports and entertainment venue. It's a patented design that allows conversion from an ice rink to a basketball court or concert setting in less than three hours.

Fans with disabilities will find 524 accessible seats inside the venue and that all common areas, vendor spaces, retail stores and restaurants follow federal and state requirements for accessibility. Every luxury suite is accessible as are all 20 family restrooms.

American Airlines Center continues to be a leading facility nationally in the area of minority opportunities. After an agreement between team owners and the city to include at least 26 percent representation of minority contractors in building the facility, the project achieved what is believed to be a national-record of 34.5 percent Minority and Women Business Enterprise (M/WBE) participation–earning the operators the highest recognition from the U.S. Department of Commerce for excellence in their M/WBE programs. The Center continues its commitment to M/WBE firms by continuing to exceed the 26 percent goal for its day-to-day operational use.

American Airlines Center strives to be the best live entertainment and sporting venue in the south. For more information on the events or media information visit our website at www.americanairlinescenter.com or e-mail us at marketing@americanairlinescenter.com.

DR PEPPER STARCENTERS

Since moving to North Texas prior to the 1993-94 NHL season, the Dallas Stars have made it an organizational priority to expose the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex to hockey, and have done so by operating eight Dr Pepper StarCenters throughout the area.

In 2003, the Stars moved their corporate offices and team practice facility to the Frisco Dr Pepper StarCenter, and followed in 2004 with the Dr Pepper StarCenter and Conference Center in Farmers Branch. It was announced in April ,2008, that a new StarCenter will be built on 7.3 acres of land in Craig Ranch – the Dr Pepper StacCenter McKinney, scheduled to open in August, 2009. It will bring the total number of Metroplex facilities to nine with 17 sheets of ice.

The Frisco facility serves as the training site for the Dallas Stars. The 211,000 square-foot facility includes more than 15,000 square feet for the team's locker room and workout & rehabilitation area and another 25,000 square feet of business offices for the Dallas Stars. It also includes two NHL-size sheets of ice, eight team locker rooms, and a 3,500 square-foot StarStuff store.

The flagship facility in Frisco is currently undergoing a renovation, with the Deja Blue Arena and ice rink area being expanded to a hockey capacity of approximately 5,000 with availability to hold concerts, graduations and family shows, as well as other sporting events. Construction is expected to be complete by summer, 2009.

"The first step toward having a championship team is making sure they have the best training facility available," said Stars owner Thomas O. Hicks. "The Stars have achieved that goal in Frisco and we hope that the quality of the facility will help to lure potential players in the future."

The Dallas Stars are one of the few teams in the NHL to design and build their own practice facility and arena. The team also sets the pace in the NHL among clubs that form partnerships with communities to create public skating facilities, a trend which is picking up momentum around the league. The facility in Farmers Branch was built in partnership with that city, as were the facilities in Euless and Duncanville. The Stars also have facilities in Grapevine, Irving and two in Plano, one of which is a youth-only facility built in partnership with the non-profit Plano Sports Authority.

When the Stars moved to town more than 15 years ago, there were five total sheets of ice in the area (two of which were at shopping malls and didn't host any sort of hockey). There were no high school or traveling hockey teams and only 250 local children playing the sport. In addition, there were only 225 adults playing in recreational leagues.

Heading into the 2008-2009 season, there are now more than 8,000 North Texas kids and adults playing hockey on 26 sheets of ice in the area, including nearly 70 high school hockey teams.

HICKS CEDAR PARK - TEXAS STARS

Hicks Cedar Park, LLC (an affiliate of Hicks Sports Group), the Dallas Stars Hockey Club and the City of Cedar Park officially broke ground this past June on the new state-of-the-art Cedar Park Event Center.

The multi-use facility is scheduled to open in early fall of 2009, located just north of Austin, Texas. It will include 6,800 seats available for hockey and 8,700 for concerts and other events. The Center will have 24 suites (including four party suites) and 541 club seats with a private club lounge. A retail site of 17 acres is adjacent to the facility grounds for mixed-use development that will include 91,000 square feet for retail and 91,000 square feet for commercial, developed by Hicks Cedar Park.

The Texas Stars Hockey Club will be the main tenant of the new Cedar Park Event Center, with plans to play in the American Hockey League (AHL), the primary development partner of the National Hockey League. The Texas Stars will be the primary development affiliate for the NHL's Dallas Stars. The team is planning on making its debut for the 2009-10 season.

"The Dallas Stars are thrilled about bringing the Texas Stars to Cedar Park," said Dallas Stars co-General Manager Brett Hull. "Having our development affiliate in our home state is a natural fit and one we think will be great for the fans. There are a lot of Dallas Stars fans in the Greater Austin area and we look forward to giving them a product they will enjoy following."

Rick McLaughlin, who currently serves as executive vice president/chief operating officer for the Dallas Stars, has been named general manager of the Cedar Park Event Center and president of the Texas Stars Hockey Club.

"Hicks Cedar Park is very excited to be involved in the creation of the Cedar Park Center and the Texas Stars Hockey Club," said McLaughlin. "Cedar Park Center will be a beautiful facility and we are looking forward to bringing family entertainment, concerts, cultural events, along with AHL hockey, to this community. This is an exciting time for our organization."

THOMAS O. HICKS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD & OWNER

Thomas O. Hicks is founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Hicks Holdings LLC, a Dallas-based family office that owns and manages the Thomas and Cinda Hicks Family's sports, real estate, corporate assets, and investments. Previously, Mr. Hicks co-founded, and was Chairman from 1989-2004 of Hicks, Muse, Tate & Furst, Inc. ("HMTF"), a nationally-prominent private equity firm specializing in leveraged acquisitions. During Mr. Hicks's tenure as Chairman, HMTF successfully raised over $12 billion of private equity funds, consummated over $50 billion of leveraged acquisitions, and was one of the world's most active private investment firms.

Mr. Hicks has established himself as one of the premier sports owners in the world. Hicks' passion for sports runs deep, and it shows in his dedication to excellence among his family's sports assets – the Dallas Stars Hockey Club, of the National Hockey League, Major League Baseball's Texas Rangers Baseball Club, a 50% interest in the American Airlines Center, and a 50% interest in Liverpool Football Club, an English Premiership League team known as "Britain's Most Successful Football Club."

His tenure as owner of the Dallas Stars includes seven Division Championships, three Western Conference regular season crowns, two Presidents' Trophies as the team with the best regular season record, two consecutive trips to the Stanley Cup Finals and the 1999 Stanley Cup Championship. The Stars have the second-best record in the entire NHL over his 13 seasons as owner. Hicks contracted to purchase the hockey club in December 1995, and serves as the Stars' Chairman of the Board and Vice Chairman for the NHL Board of Governors. He also serves on the NHL Executive Committee and on the Audit and Finance Committee. Hicks played an instrumental role in the development and planning of American Airlines Center, as well as the hosting of the 2007 NHL All-Star Celebration.

Mr. Hicks has always been an owner that Stars fans can rely on to give management everything it needs to build a winning hockey club. He has played an integral role in the pursuit and acquisition of a number of premier players for the Stars from day one of ownership. Hicks' influence allowed the Stars to trade for Joe Nieuwendyk, who eventually won the Conn Smythe Trophy as Playoff MVP during Dallas' Stanley Cup title season of 1999. He played a significant role in bringing Ed Belfour and Brett Hull, both major contributors on the Stars' Cup-winning team, to Dallas as free agents and was instrumental in the club's recent acquisitions of Brad Richards and Sean Avery.

Hicks Holdings is a partner with Hillwood Development Company in the Victory Park project in downtown Dallas. Hicks Holdings is a developer of a 75-acre urban town center /multi-use development on the land adjacent to the Rangers Ballpark in Arlington; and of Champions Park, a 40-acre office/retail development in Frisco, Texas, adjacent to the Dr Pepper Ballpark and Dr Pepper StarsCenter. Hicks Holdings is a venture partner in several hotel/residential projects currently under development, including the "W" Hotel and Residences at Hollywood and Vine in Los Angeles. Through Hicks Trans American Partners, Hicks Holdings also selectively makes corporate and real estate investments in South America. Through Hicks Cedar Park, the Austin, Texas suburb, Cedar Park will be home to the Texas Stars, Dallas' American Hockey League development affiliate, starting in 2009-10. The development includes a 6,700-seat Cedar Park Event Center and has a retail site of 17 acres adjacent to the facility grounds for mixed-use development, all being developed by Hicks Cedar Park.

Hicks Holdings' majority-owned corporate holdings include DirecPath, a company formed to provide bundled DIRECTV programming, broadband voice and data services, security and other locally based services to multiple dwelling unit residences (MDUs) across the United States; Latrobe Specialty Steel, a leading manufacturer and distributor of specialty steel to the aerospace industry; Ocular LCD, Inc., a leading designer, manufacturer and marketer of high-performance liquid crystal displays, modules and systems; and Grupo Pilar, a leading animal and pet food company in Argentina. In addition, Hicks Holdings, along with Investcorp, is an investor in Greatwide Logistics Services, a leading third-party logistics services company based in Dallas. In 2007, Hicks Holdings also acquired a 40 percent stake in SafeMed Inc., an emerging leader in clinical decision support systems.

Mr. Hicks serves as Chairman of Hicks Acquisition Company 1, a $552 million Special Purpose Acquisition Company (SPAC) listed on the American Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol TOH. Hicks Acquisition Company 1 has recently entered into an agreement and partnership to acquire Graham Packaging Holdings Co., a global technology and innovation leader in value-added blow-molded rigid plastic containers for the branded food and beverage household, personal care/specialty and automotive lubricant industries.

Having recently completed his ninth season as Chairman of the Board and owner of the Texas Rangers, Hicks serves as the team's representative on the MLB Board of Governors. During his ownership, the club has captured two American League West Division titles, winning a franchise record 95 games in 1999. Mr. Hicks is on the board of directors of Major League Baseball Advanced Media, the Internet-based subsidiary of Major League Baseball.

Mr. Hicks serves on the boards of directors of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association, Crow Family Holdings, as well as The Center for Strategic and International Studies Board of Trustees, the University of Southern California Marshall School of Business Dean's Board of Advisors, the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Foundation Board of Trustees, and the University of Texas Chancellor's Council. A former member of the University of Texas System Board of Regents, Mr. Hicks served as Chairman of the University of Texas Investment Management Company (UTIMCO), which manages the $20 billion University of Texas Permanent University Fund and Long Term Funds.

Mr. Hicks graduated with an MBA from the University of Southern California in 1970 and a BBA from the University of Texas in 1969. He is also a recent recipient of the University of Texas Distinguished Alumnus Award, and annually serves as a Distinguished Guest Lecturer at Stanford University's Graduate School of Business.

With strong ties to the community, Mr. Hicks has provided continuing support to numerous local organizations, and has also held various charity board memberships. Mr. Hicks was the 1996 co-chair of the Dallas Jewish Coalition for the Homeless "Vogel Alcove" project, and was honored as the recipient of the 2000 Henry Cohn Humanitarian Award for the Anti-Defamation League. He is also a past recipient of the Father of the Year Award. The father of six children, Mr. Hicks resides with his wife, Cinda, in Dallas.

JEFF COGEN

PRESIDENT

Jeff Cogen was named President of the Dallas Stars on November 14, 2007, after more than four years as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Texas Rangers. He oversees all aspects of the Dallas Stars organization, including finances, marketing, advertising, public relations, promotions, ticket sales, budget development and broadcasting agreements. He also serves as Alternate Governor of the NHL's Board of Governors.

As president of the Texas Rangers from 2004-2007, Cogen was in charge of the club's day to day business operations, and along with owner Thomas O. Hicks and Hicks Holdings Vice President Thomas O. Hicks Jr., represented the club in quarterly Major League Baseball Owners Meetings.

Cogen's professional career started in 1980 as a marketing director with Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey Combined shows. In that capacity, he was responsible for the marketing, public relations and general sales activity of both the Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey Circus and companion Ice Shows to approximately 20 markets per year. In 1985, he was promoted to marketing and sales manager with the same organization.

In 1986, Cogen was appointed Director of Marketing for Olympia Arenas Inc, in Detroit, and was responsible for the marketing and public relations activities for the Detroit Red Wings, Joe Louis Arena and Fox Theater. In 1992, Cogen was promoted to Vice President of Marketing and held increased responsibilities for the same properties.

Cogen came to Dallas in 1993 to assume the position of Vice President of Marketing for the Dallas Stars Hockey Club. He was part of a team that helped build one of the largest season ticket bases in the National Hockey League, and guided the staff in creating a consecutive sellout streak of over 150 games. Since being elevated to co-general manager with Brett Hull, the Stars collected a 38-23-4 regular season record and advanced to the Western Conference Finals for the first time since 2000. Hull and Jackson also orchestrated the trade that brought former Conn Smythe Trophy winner Brad Richards to Dallas, signed rising star Mike Ribeiro to a five-year contract extension and inked much-ballyhooed free agent Sean Avery to a four-year deal.

Before being promoted along with Les Jackson, Hull was a special advisor to the hockey operations department. During the 2005-06 season, Hull held various roles throughout the Stars organization, including hockey operations, business operations, broadcasting, marketing, promotions and community relations. Since being elevated to co-general manager with Hull, the Stars collected a 38-23-4 regular season record and advanced to the Western Conference Finals for the first time since 2000. STARS VS. SABRES: DID YOU KNOW?

The Stars defeated the Sabres in six games in the 1999 Stanley Cup Finals to clinch the franchise's first and only championship. The series featured two overtime contests, including Game Six, which ended 14:51 into the third overtime as Brett Hull scored on Dominik Hasek to clinch the Cup. On October 14, 1995, the Stars set a franchise record for the fastest three goals in a game, scoring three times in 44 seconds of the final minute of the third period to cap an exciting 6-5 comeback victory over Boston at Reunion Arena. Trailing 5-3, Kevin Hatcher banged home a rebound at 19:11 of the third period to pull the Stars within one goal. At the 19:44 mark, Mike Modano fired a wrist shot past Bruins' goalie Craig Billington to even the score at 5-5. On the ensuing faceoff, Mike Kennedy hustled to the corner to Billington's left, dug the puck loose and sent a centering pass to Guy Carbonneau, who fired the puck past Billington at 19:55 for the win. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it is the only game in NHL history that a team trailed by two goals in the final minute of the game and came back to score three goals and win the game in regulation.

#7 NEAL BROTEN 1981-97

Neal Broten finished his NHL career as the most decorated player ever born in the United States. As early as high school he was a champion, taking Roseau High School to three Minnesota State High School Hockey Tournaments. He would go on to lead the University of Minnesota to the 1979 NCAA Championship and was awarded the first-ever Hobey Baker Award as the nation's top collegiate hockey player in 1981. Broten entered history in 1980 as he helped the "Miracle on Ice" U.S. Olympic team win the gold-medal. He was the last member of that squad to play in the NHL.

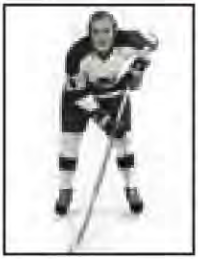
Broten, fittingly, scored his first career NHL goal in his first career NHL game with the Minnesota North Stars on March 31, 1981 vs. St. Louis. In his first full season, 1981-82, he was named the franchise's Rookie of the Year after setting team records that still stand for most goals, assists and points by a rookie (38-60-98). Sixteen seasons later, Broten retired as the club's all-time leader in games played (992), assists (593) and points (867) and is fourth in team annals in goals (274). The team's Most Valuable Player in 1984 and 1986, Broten participated in the NHL All-Star Game in 1983 and 1986. In that 1985-86 campaign, he became the first American-born player to record 100 points (105) and set the current club mark for assists in a season with 76.

Moving with the team to Texas in 1993, Broten scored the first-ever goal in Dallas Stars history on October 5, 1993 against Detroit. He was dealt by the Stars to New Jersey in February of 1995, where he achieved his remaining goal. Having been to the Stanley Cup Finals twice before with the Stars (1981,1991), he played an instrumental role in the Devils' Stanley Cup victory in 1995, finishing second on that championship club with 19 points (7-12-19) in 20 playoff contests. Broten began the 1996-97 season with New Jersey, and had a brief stint with Los Angeles before the Stars reacquired him off waivers on January 28, 1997. Finishing the season with Dallas, Broten totaled 923 points for his career, the second-highest point total ever for an American-born player behind only Joe Mullen (1,063).

In June of 1996, Broten was honored with USA Hockey's Distinguished Achievement Award and in April of 1997 he was named to the All-Time USA Hockey First Team. In addition, he was selected as USA Hockey's Player of the Decade for 1976-77 to 1985-86 and in the Summer of 1997 was named a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award for outstanding service to hockey in the United States, one of only two players (Ken Morrow) to win the Award twice, having won it the first time as a member of the 1980 gold medal USA team. Broten's number seven was retired by the Stars on February 7, 1998 and he was inducted into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2000.

#19 BILL MASTERTON 1967-68

Bill Masterton was a member of the Minnesota North Stars inaugural NHL team in 1967-68. He played two seasons of professional hockey for Hull-Ottawa of the EPHL in 1961-62 and Cleveland of the American Hockey League in 1962-63. The North Stars retired Masterton's jersey number in memory of the only professional hockey player to lose his life because of an injury suffered during an NHL game. Masterton hit the back of his head on the ice on January 13, 1968 against Oakland, and passed away two days later. The North Stars named the Bill Masterton Memorial Cup Award in his memory, presenting it to the North Stars player voted most valuable by his teammates during the season. Masterton's number 19 has never been worn by another North Star and was retired on January 17, 1987.



#8 BILL GOLDSWORTHY 1967-77

Bill Goldsworthy started his career as a North Star in 1967 when Minnesota selected him from Boston in the 1967 expansion draft. He made his name with the North Stars through goal-scoring and the invention of the Goldy Shuffle. Goldsworthy set marks throughout his career, becoming the first player from a post-1967 team to score 200 goals and the first to score 250. In 1971, Goldsworthy became the team's leading scorer and goal scorer, a mark he held for over a decade. His 48-goal season in 1973-74 was the best ever by a North Star until 1981-82 and he averaged over 30 goals a year during his Stars career. In 1976, Goldsworthy became the first North Star ever to reach the 500-point plateau. In 670 games with Minnesota, he totalled 267 goals, 239 assists for 506 points. Goldsworthy's number eight was retired on February 15, 1992.

STARS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Dallas Stars Foundation was established to serve as a positive force throughout the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex. The Foundation focuses its efforts on providing support to the children of the community so they may lead quality lives and develop into contributing members of society. Through teamwork, interaction, and education, the Dallas Stars Foundation works to bring together all members of the Metroplex and build a bright future for today's youth.

The Foundation made in-kind and monetary donations to over 900 different organizations in 2007-08, including schools, non-profit organizations and sports-related programs.

GRANTS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

The mission of the Dallas Stars Foundation focuses its efforts on supporting children's charities and youth program implementation. Since 1999, the Dallas Stars Foundation has distributed over two million dollars to many worthwhile organizations. The Foundation provides grants to a myriad of worthy causes which include, but are not limited to, support for medical needs, providing safe havens for abused children or crusading against illiteracy.

The Dallas Stars created the Junior Stars Scholarship in 1997 to promote sportsmanship and academics as part of the hockey experience. When selecting scholarship recipients, the Stars look for individuals who exhibit strong academic performance in school, involvement in extracurricular and/or community activities, financial need and exemplary conduct during practices, games and competitions. Perspective applicants must be enrolled in the Junior Stars program for the current season at a Metroplex Dr Pepper StarCenter. Additionally, each spring, the Bob Gainey Honorary Scholarship is awarded to a deserving Metroplex high school senior who not only exhibits exemplary leadership skills, but has excelled in both the classroom and on the athletic field.

GOLF TOURNAMENT
The Dallas Stars Foundation and Hicks Sports Marketing Group has partnered with Classic BMW and Craig Ranch for this year's golf tournament. Scheduled for Oct. 27, this tournament will be second-to-none. Classic BMW will hold a pre-tournament party at its dealership in Plano the night before, with Brenden and Anne Marie Morrow serving as celebrity hosts of the party.

EDUCATIONAL AND GRASSROOTS HOCKEY PROGRAMS

STICK WITH READING
The Dallas Stars Foundation established this cornerstone literacy program in 1998 to encourage kids to develop the habit of reading in their leisure time. Students record their extracurricular reading over an eight-week period for the chance to win great Stars incentive prizes. With the help of Dallas Stars Goaltender Marty Turco, who serves as the program's spokesman, the Stick with Reading program has reached hundreds of thousands kids across North Texas. With over 35,000 registered participants during the 2007-2008 season, Stick with Reading continues to be one of the most successful reading programs in the league. It was sponsored by Meritage Homes and Half Price Books last season.

HIGH SCHOOL MEDIA DAY
This annual event allows high school journalism students the opportunity to get a behind the scenes look at the professional sports media industry. Participating students watch a Dallas Stars practice session and then attend a question and answer session featuring Dallas Stars players, professional broadcasters, and local media personalities. Each student is encouraged to write an article on the experience for his/her school newspaper and be eligible to sit in the AAC press box during a Dallas Stars home game. The winning writer will also have his or her article published on the Dallas Stars website.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

In its continuing commitment to the community, the Stars' organization has created the Dallas Stars Foundation, which is the official charity of the Dallas Stars' management and players. The Dallas Stars realize that professional sports teams have a tremendous social and economic impact upon their cities and states. A team's athletes provide leadership, inspiration and support for their community. With this in mind, the Dallas Stars Foundation was created to help maximize the Stars' presence in the community and to assist various nonprofit organizations particularly children's charities, through philanthropic grants and program implementation.

COMMUNITY TICKETS

The Community Tickets program allows the Dallas Stars Organization to serve the community by donating tickets to various charities and civic programs throughout the area, and also allow each respective organization the opportunity to experience the magic of Dallas Stars hockey first hand. The tickets can be used by the organization's employees, volunteers and designated beneficiaries only. Organizations can apply to become part of the community tickets program through the Dallas Stars website, and there is no application deadline, it's a rolling enrollment.

THE M CLUB

The M Club is an extension of the community tickets program in which Dallas Stars and NHL All-Star Goaltender Marty Turco has generously donated 35 season tickets to the Dallas Stars Foundation to distribute to local children's groups so they are able to experience a Dallas Stars hockey game at the American Airlines Center. Hundreds of children have been able to enjoy Dallas Stars games through Turco's generosity, and thanks to Marty, that winning tradition will continue.

HOLIDAY PROGRAMS

HOSPITAL VISITS

Every year, the Dallas Stars strive to spread a little holiday cheer with their annual hospital visits. This past year the players broke up into two groups, one group headed to Cooks Children's Medical Center of Fort Worth, and the other went to Children's Medical City of Dallas. The team visited with children, signed autographs, handed out teddy bears and helped raise spirits. Patients were eager to talk sports and thanks to the Dallas Stars, they were able to forget their troubles for a short while.

WIVES HOLIDAY TRADITION

The wives of the Dallas Stars players and coaches spread a little cheer of their own during the holiday season. They all spent some quality time with the children of the United Cerebral Palsy of Greater DFW prior to Christmas. The wives were given a tour of the UCP facility and spent some time playing with the center's children. They made paper snowmen, bounced around in the indoor bounce house and finger painted Christmas ornaments. UCP was given a grant of $25,000 for construction of a new Dallas Stars-themed indoor playground, which is now completed and in full use at the facility.

MYSTERY PUCK SALE

At the height of the holiday season, The Dallas Stars Foundation conducts its annual, highly anticipated mystery puck sale. Every Dallas Stars player participates in this overwhelmingly popular, fan favorite fundraiser. For a $30 donation to the Foundation, fans received an autographed puck from one of the Dallas Stars players. No one knows which player signed the puck until its unwrapped, and if the puck is signed in gold – that person just won a private meet and greet with the player who signed it!
